

Tarot/Psychic Reading Disclaimer

@CrystalTarotTherapy

by Dr Jo Scoble

- Dr Jo Scoble, as the tarot consultant/reader, does not suggest they are always psychic. Nor does it suggest they are always telepathic and can read minds.
- All readings are private and confidential.
- To avoid disappointment or wasted time, For one-on-one appointments, I ask for a pre-arranged meeting time with all clients. I cannot accommodate clients who call on me unexpectedly.
- A one-to-one tarot reading is a two-way process. I will ask questions during a reading and expect the involvement of the querent, so you get more clarity from the reading.
- Any tarot reading does not predict the future but is based on probable outcomes and events influenced by the current situation, and attitude of the querent and people around them.
- As a tarot reader, I have studied the images and symbols on the cards over the years and have associated their meanings with things that I understand in a particular way, so that I can relay the messages using my own language. This means that any other tarot reader may interpret the same cards completely differently.
- Any decisions made or actions taken by the querent after the tarot reading are the sole responsibility of the querent. A tarot reading gives predictions so nothing is 'set in stone'. As a tarot reader, I will offer opinions and some advice or encouragement throughout the reading, but I will not interfere with the free-will of the querent.
- The readings I give are there to build-up the querent; to empower and be constructive to help the querent move on in certain areas of life.
- I will do my best to be honest during a reading, and in doing so will not give false hopes just to keep the querent happy, but at the same time be sensitive to your feelings: I will not judge or condemn any client - I practice compassion always.
- I do not give readings to persons under the age of 18 and may require an ID.
- I will not refuse a client at a tarot consultancy on the grounds of race, colour, religious belief, disability, or sexual orientation, or gender. (I may refuse a reading if I believe the querent is getting a reading just to test or ridicule me).
- I do not give Medical advice, or information about physical Death.
- I do not give specific Financial or Legal advice.
- I do not predict the lottery numbers.
- I do not invoke or remove spells or curses.
- No tarot cards are negative or dangerous.
- I reserve the right to reschedule/delay any readings if necessary but I hope not to!
